On Sunday, September 12, Sunday School resumes for all ages. Some children will be graduating to a new class. All adult classes will begin new series or topics. At 9:50 a.m., the Sunday School hour, proceed to the appropriate classroom for a meet-and-greet introduction of teachers, classmates and topics. Signs will be posted telling you where children, youth and adult classes will meet. Weather and safety permitting, some might meet outdoors. If a group chooses to meet by Zoom, you will receive information on how to join them.

Friends are welcome; this is a great time to take the next step in following Christ.

Twenty six year old Jean Louise Finch, “Scout”- returns home to Maycomb, Alabama from New York City to visit her aging father, Atticus. Set against the backdrop of the civil rights tensions and political turmoil that were transforming the South, Scout’s homecoming turns bittersweet when she learns disturbing truths about her close knit family, the town and the people dearest to her. Her journey and lessons learned can only be guided by one’s own conscience. If you are interested in joining this book discussion please contact Racheal Kiremerwa rmk@aristotle.net)

Presbyterian Women

This is an invitation for all women to join this special group united in worship, study, fellowship and service. Our “official purpose” is:

- to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study,
- to support the mission of the church worldwide,
- to work for justice and peace, and
- to build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthens the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and witnesses to the promise of God’s kingdom.

Bible study is the glue that holds Presbyterian Women together. Our study for this year is What My Grandmothers Taught Me: Learning from the Women in Matthew’s Genealogy of Jesus.

Our regular gatherings that include worship, Bible study, and fellowship take place on the second Tuesday of each month and are led by ministers and educational staff. Our first fall gathering will be Tuesday, September 14 at 10:00 a.m. on Zoom. The study will be lead by Arkansas Presbytery Connector Carol Clark. Please contact Janie Ford (jeannieford@secondpreslr.org) or Moderator Jamie Gomez (basidiospores@gmail.com) with questions.

Just bring you and your family! We’ll make use of indoor and outdoor spaces for fellowship, dining and recreation. Registration is $7.00 per person with a $20 maximum per household. Register online, in the office or Sunday mornings in the Narthex.
Cardboard Box ReUse

Clean, flattened cardboard can always be placed in your recycling bin at home (and at church), but did you know that cardboard boxes can be used for yard waste? The City of Little Rock collects yard waste once per week, typically the day after your scheduled trash/recycling pick up. If you don’t have boxes, please consider placing your leaves, grasses, and small twigs in reusable trash barrels or in compostable yard waste bags instead of plastic bags, which must be opened and then discarded as trash at the City’s composting site. Please place within five feet of the curb your bags, cardboard boxes, or cans smaller than 30 gallons with a total weight of container and contents not exceeding 50 pounds. Limbs should be less than six feet long, and six inches or smaller in diameter, stacked and placed next to the curb. Do not place yard waste in a City-provided garbage cart.

Curious about Driving Electric?

Then we have just the event for you! If you are you considering going electric with your next vehicle or are curious about the available options, please join us on September 25 from 11:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. in the parking lot at Second Presbyterian Church. You’ll have the opportunity to test drive some vehicles and talk with their owners and dealers.

You can register for the event at driveelectricweek.org. National Drive Electric Week, September 25-October 3, 2021, is a nationwide celebration to raise awareness of the many benefits of all-electric and plug-in hybrid cars, trucks, motorcycles, and more.

This event is hosted by our Environmental Stewardship Ministry and sponsored by Today’s Power, Inc., the City of Little Rock Sustainability Office, and the Arkansas Clean Cities Coalition.

The 81-panel solar parking lot array at Second Presbyterian will again be a part of the American Solar Energy Society (ASES) National Solar Tour on October 2-3! During this two-day event, Second will be virtually joining hundreds of homes, businesses and organizations across the nation to showcase their solar sites.

ASSE NATIONAL SOLAR TOUR

Our 29.16 kW solar array generates about 39 megawatts annually, which is used to help power our 7,600-square-foot youth building. Any excess power that we generate is applied to the energy used by our main building. The American Solar Energy Society National Solar Tour is the largest grassroots solar, renewable energy, and sustainable living event in the nation.

The tour allows solar owners and supporters to connect, ask and answer questions, and participate in a nationwide in-person and virtual solar experience. Check it out at www.nationalsolartour.org!

Missed a Sermon?
Did you miss one of the sermons? If so, you can listen to recent sermons on the church website at secondpreslr.org. Click on “Worship and Music,” then click on “Listen to Recent Sermons.” To receive a copy of a sermon either by e-mail or regular mail, contact Karin Howze@secondpreslr.org or (501) 227-0000.

Livestream Technicians Needed
Do you have an aptitude for computers? Then do we have an opportunity for you! As part of the Second Vision Capital Campaign, we started putting together the equipment to livestream our Sunday morning service. The pandemic accelerated our timeline a bit as we pivoted to virtual worship. Now is the time to pivot back to our original goal of livestreaming the Sunday morning 11:00 a.m. worship service instead of the current pre-record/produce model we use. To make the stream happen, we are in need of a handful of folks willing to take on a Sunday morning every month (or so) to operate the buttons for the livestream. For more information or to volunteer, contact Sam Byrd.

Transition Team
The following members have been elected by the Session to serve as a Transition Team: Cyril Hollingsworth, Susan Marsh, Jon Davies, Marie Holder. They will be assisted by General Presbyter Stewart Smith. The Transition Team has begun a search for a Transition Pastor/Head of Staff. The hope is to have such a person in place by the time of Steve Hancock’s retirement in October.

Book Drive
Zack Gridley, a Boy Scout from Troop 55, is asking for gently used books or new books for a reading merit badge requirement. He’ll need books for babies through teens. All books will be going to UAMS or Arkansas Children’s Hospital. A box will be placed in the foyer of the church with an identifying flyer for book collection. The last day to collect books is Sunday, September 26, 2021.

Cheeses With Jesus

Cheeses With Jesus ended the summer with a mission project, sponsored by the Outreach Ministry of Second Presbyterian. We prepared the traditional Teacher Appreciation gift baskets stuffed with goodies, and notes for the teachers at Bale Elementary School. Using a memorial gift for CWJ, $5 Starbucks gift cards were purchased for teachers and staff. (When all else fails, a break for coffee or tea can have healing effects!). Thanks to all who shared in the shopping, packing, writing and delivery of (with all the things!) the Teacher Appreciation gift.

In September we will return to fellowship and a short Bible Study (second and fourth Wednesday). We will be looking at Flawed Families in the Bible. The study will revisit stories of some familiar Bible stories about families in the book of Genesis: Cain & Able; Sarai & Hagar; Rachel & Leah; Jacob & Esau. Our normal meeting time through the fall will be 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Second Pres Chamber Choir Opens Concert for Foreigner
The Chamber Choir performed a 15-minute set of a capella versions of rock ‘n’ roll classics before Foreigner took the stage on August 8. “I had never thought of that,” is how Bevan Keating, our director of music, says he replied when approached by Foreigner’s representatives. “But Foreigner is right in my wheelhouse.” Along with providing an opening slot on the show, the veteran band is donating $500 to our Children’s Music Ministry. RIGHT TIME RIGHT PLACE
Mr. Fix It Solves her Plumbing Problem & Love Blooms for Terri & Bracy Cross
Terri Fowler and Bracy Cross were married on June 7, 2008. They met at a birthday party, but it was a plumbing problem that brought them together. Bracy remembers meeting Terri at a party in 2005. “She had the biggest, brightest, toothy smile on her face and big bright red lips and she was the most welcoming, friendly face I think I had ever seen,” Bracy says after meeting her. On Christmas break from engineering school, he had been looking for a way to see her again and plumbing problems became the answer. “Bracy fixed it,” Terri says. “He can fix anything.” About marriage, Terri says, “make marriage your priority” and Bracy says, “keep working on it”. Terri and Bracy Cross celebrated their 13th anniversary. They have two daughters, 10-year-old Lila and 7-year-old June. Arkansas Democrat-Gazette: August 1, 2021.

Hidden Gem No More! Wildwood Park for the Arts turns 30
Wildwood’s theater and other small indoor performing spaces might not even be considered the main attraction. With the main structure occupying only a small portion of Wildwood’s woody, 105-acre footprint, you could say the park is more for the nature lover than the performing-arts fan. A 10-acre Butler Arboretum, designed by noted landscape and garden designer P. Allen Smith; a water garden; designed hiking trails and a small lake are only some of Wildwood’s outdoor highlights. Bevan Keating, executive director of Wildwood for the past three years, says that his institution never completely closed during the pandemic. “What was the one thing we were allowed to do during the COVID crisis? We were encouraged to go for a walk, to get outside.” Wildwood also used its striking outdoor setting as a backdrop for outdoor concerts. Keating says. “We had three concerts in the spring and all of them sold out. “People tell me all the time that we’re a hidden gem,” Keating says. “You don’t want to be a hidden; you just want to be a gem. That’s what we’re aiming to be.” Arkansas Democrat-Gazette: August 1, 2021.

Historic Hillcrest Home Published in Pulaski County Historical Review & Hillcrest Life

Joanne Riddick’s beautiful Colonial Revival home, the McDonnell-Hamilton House, was built on Hill Road in the Hillcrest neighborhood in 1910 by Joanne’s grandparents, James Smith McDonnell and Susan Belle Hunter McDonnell. The family home was designed by Little Rock architect, Theodore Sanders, and the construction was supervised by Joanne’s grandmother. Joanne first lived in the home in 1943 and then returned with her husband, Walter Riddick, to renovate the home and live there from 1980 until the present. Joanne had a fervent desire to see the house pass to new owners who would value it. She recently sold it to a new owner who has plans to embrace its history and continue to preserve it. Little Rock preservationists are grateful to Joanne and her family for the careful preservation of this Little Rock landmark. The generations of the McDonald-Hamilton-Haley-Riddick family who lived in this home had a positive and lasting legacy on many important institutions of Little Rock, including our church. Pulaski County Historical Review Volume 69, Number 2.

Judicial Friendship Combined With Opera

Second Pres talented musicians are active in the community again. Opera in the Rock opened its 2021-22 season with Derrick Wang’s one-act contemporary opera “Scalia/Ginsburg,” in partnership with the Clinton Foundation on August 26. Soprano Shannon Rookey, and 9:00 Music Leader, Tenor Matthew Tatus, sang the title roles. Lyric bass Michael Colman sang the role of the Commentator. Director Ella Marchment, traveling to Arkansas from the United Kingdom, says the opera plays out on a thrust stage, with the orchestra — seven musicians from the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra — behind. “Scalia/Ginsburg” reflects its characters’ appetite for opera — they actually appeared, in cameo parts, onstage in operas. Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, August 26, 2021.

First and Third Monday Morning Women’s Bible Study: 9:30 a.m., Second Hall and on Zoom
   Leader: Jeannie Ford.
This eclectic group of women enjoys each other’s company in prayer, fellowship, and study. Beginning September 20, the group will engage in an exploration of a new curriculum "Testimony: Vocabulary of Faith." Written by four amazing female Presbyterian pastors, this curriculum is designed to help people of Reformed faith articulate what we believe fluently and in ways that clearly demonstrate our faith to the world. This study will enable participants to Remember, Reclaim, and Rearticulate what we believe about who God is and who we are so the patterns of our lives embody the liberating love and grace of Jesus Christ. All are welcome to join at any time. For more information, contact Jeannie Ford (jeannieford@secondpreslr.org).

Second Hall Sunday School – Be the Church
Will you promise......?
Second Hall, In Person and on Zoom, 9:50 a.m.
Each year when a new class of elders and deacons are ordained and installed, each time a minister is ordained or installed, often when other leaders in the church are commissioned there are a series of questions asked as part of the promise to service in the church— the Body of Christ. Every year as part of our Officer Training program there is a segment of reflection and discussion around these questions and what they mean. And every year someone comments that we could do a whole class on these questions. So—that’s what we are going to do!

As we continue to explore what it means for us to be a “Matthew 25 Church” the Adult Education Ministry is providing opportunities to explore the first initiative on the Matthew 25 promise—Congregational Vitality and what God calls us to do and to be as individual members of the community that is the church. In this five-week series a variety of leaders will lead an exploration of these questions that guide our call to love God and neighbor.

Do you trust in Jesus Christ your Savior, acknowledge him Lord of all and Head of the Church, and through him believe in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit?

September 26:   Lindy Vogado
Do you sincerely receive and adopt the essential tenets of the Reformed faith as expressed in the confessions of our church as authentic and reliable expositions of what Scripture leads us to believe and do, and will you be guided by our confessions? (A brief overview of our creeds and confessions in The Book of Confessions, what we find in them that shapes our beliefs and ministries)

October 3:   Stewart Smith, General Presbyter of The Presbytery of Arkansas
Will you be governed by our church’s polity, and will you abide by its discipline? Will you be a friend among your colleagues in ministry, working with them, subject to the ordering of God’s Word and Spirit? (Stewart will provide an overview of our polity, specifically explaining the process for searching and calling a pastor)

October 10:   Alisa Secrest and Panel of Church Members
Will you in your own life seek to follow the Lord Jesus Christ, love your neighbors, and work for the reconciliation of the world?
