

Ways to Get Involved

Lenten Preaching Series

THE ART OF FORGIVENESS

Join us Sundays in Lent as Rev. Kane shares on forgiveness as a hallmark of the Christian life – God forgives us and, in turn, we are called to forgive one another.

But what does forgiveness entail?

How do we do it and how to do we receive it? Does everyone receive forgiveness – should everyone receive it?

MAR 24 PALM SUNDAY What Forgiving Does for the World! Luke 19:28- 40 and Luke 23:34

MAR 31 EASTER SUNDAY God Forgives You – Go Enjoy It! John 3:16, 20

Let's explore together questions such as: what about guardianship for my children? what about a will? Give your family the gift of being prepared and informed about end of life issues and financial and estate planning decisions.

FIRST & THIRD MONDAYS/APRIL 1 AT 9:30AM

This study, co-taught by Rev. Mainard O'Connell, Rev. Lowry and Rev. Kane, we will use a hand-picked packet of current articles, sermons, and scholarship to lead us through this important and imaginative text. The Book of Revelation is a fundamentally political text that aims to help us answer the question "how do we live as Christians in a broken world?" Parse the invaluable historical and pastoral context needed to understand the fullness of the text beyond the media's shallow idea of incendiary prophecy. We typically meet in Second Hall at 9:30am.
